Carolyn Williams was sentenced to serve four months in the custody of the Bureau of Prisons. The Court ordered Ms. Williams surrender to the BOP on June 15, 2009, but 2:00 p.m. The parties have agreed Ms. Williams may surrender on September 25, 2009. Ms. Williams is the main earner for her family, which includes her husband and four children. Her husband recently suffered a reduction in his income due to the downturn in the economy. Ms. Williams needs the additional time to save money for her family to provide for them while she is in

1 custody. The parties have contacted pretrial services officer Gina Faubion, Ms. Faubion
2 indicates Ms. Williams has complied with all terms and conditions of pretrial release and Ms.
3 Faubion has no objection to extending the surrender date to September 25, 2009.

5 Therefore, it is hereby stipulated and agreed to between the United States of America
6 through Phil Talbert, Assistant United States Attorney and defendant, CAROLYN WILLIAMS, 7 by and through her counsel, Krista Hart, that the surrender date of June 15, 2009, be reset to
